

Reading Apprenticeship Improving Secondary Education (RAISE)

Southeastern Michigan Cohort II: 10 Days of Professional Development

For more information about Reading Apprenticeship: <http://www.wested.org/RA>

“The Common Core Standards tell us what we should be helping our students achieve. Reading Apprenticeship shows us how.”

~Teacher in Summer 2011 RAISE Institute

Can your high schools use FREE, high-quality professional development in teaching content literacy to students in science, history, and English?

Southeastern Michigan Cohort II 10-days of professional development starts August 13-17, 2012, in the Ann Arbor-Detroit area

Participating teams of 3 to 9 science, history and English teachers receive:

- » 10 days of free high-quality professional development
- » $1,000 stipends per teacher ($500 after first five days, $500 at the end of the last 5 days)
- » Reimbursement for travel (and lodging where needed)
- » Reimbursement to school districts for substitute coverage for 2 days of the winter training

Submit a preliminary team application online by DECEMBER 16th, 2011 at:

<http://raise-se-mi.eventbrite.com>

Password: RA4U

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT RAISE

Contact: Bill Loyd, Michigan RAISE Site-Coordinator

email: wjloyd@gmail.com